

Human Procreation

Sub-chapter	Section	Subject Matter
Part 1: The Right Conditions	i. Love	A broad definition of 'love' & its reason for existence • False love - Conscious & subconscious mismatching • The importance of familial love
	ii. Marriage	An anthropological comparison with the socio-sexual habits of our primate relatives • Cultural monogomy & the perpetuation of social norms
Part 2: Genetic Predisposition	i. Biological control and personal choice	Success & failure / reward & punishment • Genetic inheritance & logical decisions ✿ The human sexual impulse - leisure / procreative • Genetic inheritance: physical characteristics, traits & diseases • The boundaries of genetic inheritance
	ii. Sexual union and reproduction	The instinctive nature of sex • Sexual union on a biological level ✿ The practical functions of orgasm • Male & female perspectives • The perilous journey of life: from conception to birth • Foetal development & the human brain
Part 3: The Human Factor	i. Sex and the individual	Our genetic individuality • Psychological development & sexual orientation • Homosexuality • Testosterone & sexual deviances ✿ From boys & girls: our differing paths to sexual & social maturity • The male 'perverse' • The unbounded nature of human sexual curiosity

Part 3: The Human Factor (...continued)	ii. Sex and industry	Social tolerance & regulation of the sex industry • Industrial greed & environmental neglect • The effects of oestrogen & other pollutants on human fertility & the natural world • Tobacco & thalidomide as examples of industrial deceit and negligence • ‘Viagra’: the socio-sexual game-changer
Part 4: From Birth into Institutionalisation		The evolution of a prolonged childhood - human psychological maturity • Our innate connection to human civilisation ✿ The importance of a balanced upbringing • From basic reflexes to learned communication skills • Early humans & the invaluable advantages of intelligence ✿ Self-awareness & abstract thought • Personal development & the importance of social skills • Social indoctrination: with two examples (abduction & incarceration) • The illusory nature of human society

